

An Exhibition & Workshops touring England, Wales & New Zealand

The Weather Report

What does it mean to be a 'good ancestor' ?

Exhibition
14th April to 14th May 2023

Free
Opening Event
Fri 14th April
6-8pm

Pay as you feel
Workshop
Sat 13th May 10:30am-
12:30pm

Theatre Severn
Frankwell Quay
Shrewsbury
SY3 8FT

A curated space and powerful, moving record of the thoughts and voices of women from coastal, immigrant and creative communities.

Jill Impey's film The Weather Report was recorded during local workshops in New Zealand and England where participants engaged with the artist's creative processes. They reflected on their relationships with heritage and explored feelings about the weather, the sea, migration, colonisation, connection and what it means to be a 'good ancestor'.

Workshop Booking email jillimpey7@gmail.com to reserve your place, numbers limited.

Take part in a project about connection

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

